JEANIE BUSS

GOVERNOR

As Governor, Jeanie Buss oversees all aspects of the Los Angeles Lakers organization, working closely with President of Business Operations Tim Harris and President of Basketball Operations and General Manager Rob Pelinka. In 2020, Buss became the first female Governor to lead an organization to an NBA Championship, when the Lakers won their 17th title.

Having represented the team on the NBA's Board of Governors for 30 years, Buss is currently a member of the NBA Advisory and Finance Committee and the NBA Labor Committee. She serves as an Honorary Trustee of the University of Southern California, her alma mater, and is on the Board of LA2028, the group overseeing the return of the Olympics to Los Angeles.

She is a co-host of Lakers All-Access, a yearly event presented by the LA Sports and Entertainment Commission (LASEC), a nonprofit organization of which she sits on the board, and is a founding member of the Core Leadership Group of ChampionLA, an initiative led by LASEC to fulfill the financial obligations of hosting major sporting events that deliver tremendous economic and community impact for Los Angeles. Buss was inducted into the CIF LA City Section Hall of Fame in April 2025.

In 2023, she won an Emmy Award for executive producing Legacy: The True Story of the LA Lakers a 10-part docuseries which aired on Hulu and Disney+. She is also the executive producer of acclaimed comedy Running Point, starring Kate Hudson, which satirizes the life of a woman running a Los Angeles-based professional basketball team. The Netflix series ranked in the streamer's Top 10 views in 83 countries around the world and has been picked up for a second season.

Buss spearheaded the revival of WOW – Women of Wrestling, which returned to television screens in 2022. Her award-winning tequila company Cincoro – launched in collaboration with Michael Jordan, Wes Edens, Emilia Fazzalari and Wyc Grousbeck – recently celebrated its sixth anniversary.

Buss is on the board of the Shaquille O'Neal Foundation and supports Baby2Baby, Canine Companions for Independence, Wags and Walks among many other charitable endeavors, while also working internally with the Lakers Youth Foundation to raise money for Southern California Youth charities.

Jeanie is married to actor and comedian Jay Mohr and is stepmother to his 14-year-old son Mackie.

ROB PELINKA

PRESIDENT, BASKETBALL OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

After eight full seasons with the Lakers, President of Basketball Operations & General Manager Rob Pelinka has orchestrated a series of blockbuster acquisitions, earning the franchise their 17th NBA title in 2020 and cementing the team's Championship DNA through the decade.

Pelinka helped make one of the most significant free agent signings in team history in 2018 when the Lakers added four-time NBA MVP LeBron James, following that up with a franchise-altering trade that brought eight-time NBA All-Star Anthony Davis to Los Angeles. With other key additions, L.A. went on to capture the team's first championship since 2010 by defeating Portland, Houston, Denver and Miami in the 2020 NBA Playoffs.

Last offseason, Pelinka spearheaded a new era of Lakers basketball with the hiring of JJ Redick as the 29th head coach in Lakers history and the 25th of the Los Angeles era. As the trade deadline approached, Pelinka executed another franchise-altering move, acquiring five-time All-NBA guard and perennial MVP candidate Luka Dončić. Under the steady leadership of Pelinka and Redick, the Lakers posted an impressive 50-32 record, securing the third seed in the Western Conference and taking the Pacific Division crown for the first time since 2020.

In the most recent offseason, Pelinka solidified the team's future by signing Dončić to a contract extension and adding center Deandre Ayton, veteran guard Marcus Smart and forward Jake LaRavia via free agency, as well as selecting Adou Thiero in the 2025 NBA Draft. The Lakers' reconstructed roster is flush with talent as the franchise looks to capture its 18th championship in team history.

Off the court, Pelinka has reignited the Lakers commitment to player development by launching the Lakers Genius Talks, a series of life-skills discussions for Lakers players led by luminaries such as Denzel Washington, Kendrick Lamar, Allyson Felix, Dwayne Johnson and Michael B. Jordan.

In his role, Pelinka coordinates all day-to-day functions of the Basketball Operations Department, helping to manage personnel decisions, contract negotiations, salary cap strategies and scouting. He also oversees and collaborates with his staff on all offseason activities, including the draft process, summer league, free agency and training camp.

Pelinka joined forces with the Lakers after spending the greater part of two decades representing many of the NBA's top players as an agent. Once named by Forbes as one the Top 10 Sports Agents in the World, Pelinka's experience gives him a unique, player-centric perspective of the NBA landscape that has helped shape the core service values for the franchise.

The Lake Forest, Ill., native earned his business degree from the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business with high honors in 1993, before receiving his law degree, cum laude, from the University of Michigan Law School in 1996. While on campus at Michigan, Pelinka was a member of the 1989 NCAA National Championship basketball team, taking part in three NCAA Final Fours (1989, 1992, 1993) for the Wolverines. In 1993, Pelinka was named the NCAA Walter Byers Male Student-Athlete of the Year. Upon graduation, Pelinka practiced corporate law in Chicago and then embarked on a successful career as a sports agent, representing some of the all-time greats and many future NBA Hall-of-Famers, including the Lakers own Kobe Bryant.

Pelinka, 55, makes his home in Newport Beach with his wife, Dr. Kristin Pelinka, his son, Durham (17), and his daughter, Emery (15). Pelinka's off court interests include trail running, mountain biking, reading great literature and spending as much time with his kids as his work schedule permits. Pelinka and his family take joy serving in leadership capacities at The Exceptional Families Ministry of Mariners Church in Irvine, Calif., and at The Painted Turtle Camp in Lake Hughes, Calif. Pelinka is also a proud member of the Mamba & Mambacita Sports Foundation Board of Directors.

PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS, CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

TIM HARRIS

Overseeing Los Angeles Lakers business-related endeavors and marketing efforts for 26 years, Tim Harris brings more than 36 years of combined experience to the organization, currently serving as President of Business Operations. Responsible for the Lakers' day-to-day business operations, Harris oversees the team's sponsorship, ticketing, broadcast, marketing, game entertainment, media relations and community relations departments. Harris negotiated one of the largest regional TV deals in all of sports when the franchise struck a long-term partnership with Spectrum SportsNet in 2011 and is the team's driving force behind its radio partnership with 710 ESPNLA. Harris is also responsible for spearheading the Lakers' UCLA Health partnership, which led to the completion of the state-of-the-art UCLA Health Training Center in 2017. Recent career highlights for Harris include leading the negotiations to secure Bibigo as the team's first-ever global marketing partnership, one of the most lucrative partnerships in the NBA, and being honored with the prestigious 'Cult Brand of the Year' award at The Gathering of Cult Brands in 2019.

Adding to his extensive scope of responsibilities, Harris serves as a Lakers Alternate Governor and represents the club at team president meetings.

Beginning his career working for Dr. Jerry Buss in 1990, Harris was tasked with promoting and marketing the team's arena at the time, The Great Western Forum. By 1995, after much success in his role, Harris would become Vice President of Marketing for the building. Following the sale of the Forum in 1997, Harris was responsible for managing the Lakers transition out of Inglewood to the brand-new STAPLES Center as well as the new team training facility. At the conclusion of the club's move, Harris was brought on board to focus his efforts strictly on the Lakers, originally serving as Vice President of Sales and Marketing.

A standout soccer player at UCLA, Harris played four seasons as goalkeeper (1980-83), earning second team All-American honors in 1983 and finishing his career ranked third on the school's career victories list. He was later named to the UCLA Athletic Department Hall of Fame as one of the school's 25 all-time greatest athletes. Harris, who graduated from UCLA with a degree in sociology, went on to play five years professionally (1984-89), including three for the Dr. Buss-owned Los Angeles Lazers of the Major Indoor Soccer League. He was also a member of the United States Men's National Soccer Team in 1985.

An Inglewood native, Harris currently resides in Manhattan Beach with his wife Choel and their three children: Jude (20), Dane (18) and Gage (14).

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE & CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

JOSEPH MCCORMACK

Joseph McCormack is the Senior Vice President, Finance and CFO for the Lakers.

In his position, McCormack is involved in all aspects of planning, budgeting, administration, development, governance and strategic initiatives for the organization and controlling ownership held by the various Buss family trusts.

McCormack joined the Lakers on Dec. 12, 1988, when he was hired by Dr. Jerry Buss. Prior to that we worked at PricewaterhouseCoopers as a certified public accountant.

A Short Hills, N.J., native with family ties to Wilson, Wyo., McCormack earned his accounting degree from Providence College.

McCormack and his wife, Catherine, reside in Manhattan Beach and have two adult children (son Jack and daughter Ellen, who is married to Max), and two grandchildren (Bernard and Rose).

CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER & GENERAL COUNSEL

DAN GRIGSBY

Dan Grigsby is the Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel & Chief Integrity Officer for the Los Angeles Lakers and its subsidiaries and affiliates. Grigsby first began representing the Lakers, the Los Angeles Kings and other sports, entertainment and business entities owned by Dr. Jerry Buss as outside counsel in 1981 and moved in-house with the Lakers in April of 2014 after having practiced sports and entertainment law with nationally and internationally recognized law firms for over 30 years. He served as the principal outside legal counsel for the Lakers since 1990 when his former partner, mentor and friend, Jim Perzik, became the first in-house General Counsel for the Lakers.

In his capacity as Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel & Chief Integrity Officer, Grigsby oversees and is responsible for all legal matters for the Lakers, the South Bay Lakers (the Lakers' NBA G League team), the Los Angeles Lakers Youth Foundation and the other subsidiaries and affiliates of the Los Angeles Lakers and, along with President of Basketball Operations and General Manager Rob Pelinka, is one of two "designated negotiators" of NBA player contracts for the Lakers.

Grigsby is a sixth generation Californian and grew up in Southern California. He received his undergraduate degree in Political Science from UCLA and his law degree from Whittier College School of Law. Dan lives in Pacific Palisades with his wife Karen, has three adult children and five grandchildren who all live in the area, and is a life-long Lakers fan.

VICE PRESIDENT, RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT

JOEY BUSS

Serving as the Vice President of Research and Development for the Lakers, Joey Buss is responsible for exploring new technologies and strategies for business and basketball development. Buss is also in charge of the South Bay Lakers, the NBA G League franchise owned and operated by the Lakers. Entering his 19th season as President/CEO of team's minor league affiliate, Buss is responsible for overseeing the SB Lakers business and basketball operations for the team.

Buss and Senior Director of Pro Personnel Nick Mazzella work closely with Rob Pelinka and Coach JJ Redick to construct the Lakers Summer League and Training Camp rosters, while managing all two-way contracts, G League Call-Ups and assignment player decisions. The 2018 Summer League roster they constructed won the first six games in Las Vegas, en route to a second-straight championship game birth after taking home the 2017 Las Vegas Summer League Championship.

Behind the leadership of Buss, the SB Lakers franchise has established itself as one of the G League's top producers of NBA players, along with developing 29 assignment players for the Los Angeles Lakers, former South Bay Lakers have earned 55 NBA call-ups. South Bay has won the division three times, making two trips to the G League Finals.

Prior to assuming his current position with the South Bay Lakers, Buss spent a year preparing for his role as Lakers alternate governor, working closely with both Jeanie Buss and Tim Harris. Not long after becoming an alternate governor, Buss accepted the Larry O'Brien Trophy on behalf of the organization after the Lakers defeated the Orlando Magic in the 2009 NBA Finals.

After graduating from the University of Southern California, Buss served as a coaching associate for the Lakers during the 2006-07 season and got his first glimpse into the business of basketball at the age of 20, when he held a summer internship in the basketball operations department of the nearby Los Angeles Sparks for the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

Away from the court, Buss and his wife Dr. Nicole Buss reside in Rancho Palos Verdes with their sons Benjamin and Oliver. Dr. Nicole Buss earned her doctorate degree in Occupational Therapy at USC and serves on the Board of Directors for Town & Country Nursery School.

JESSE BUSS

Jesse Buss begins his 11th season in the role of Assistant General Manager/ Director of Scouting. In his role, Buss oversees all scouting-related matters for the Lakers and has an essential role in the drafting of players for the franchise.

At the helm of the teams' scouting efforts, Buss orchestrates the schedules for the scouting staff, and maintains a rigorous scouting schedule himself, ensuring well-informed and thorough decisions can be made on all draft eligible prospects each year. Throughout the year, Buss works closely with President of Basketball Operations and General Manager Rob Pelinka to help identify various ways to best upgrade the roster including via trades and free agency. During the summer months, Buss and Manager of Scouting Operations and Strategy Moses Zapata manage the pre-draft workout process, which allows Buss and his staff to take a closer look at potential draft prospects.

Prior to his promotion, Buss served as the Lakers' director of scouting from 2012-15. Originally joining the organization in 2006, Jesse spent two seasons as a basketball operations assistant, where he wrote scouting reports in addition to his local scouting duties. He went on to serve as a scout from 2008-11, working domestically and internationally, and then as scouting coordinator for the 2011-12 season, overseeing all scouting operations.

The youngest son of the late Dr. Jerry Buss, Jesse grew up in San Diego and is a Dodgers, Rams, Chargers and Kings fan. Buss resides in Bel-Air with his wife, Sarah, and sons Ashton and Jaden, where he also acts as the coach of his son Jaden's basketball team.

KURT RAMBIS

Kurt Rambis has been the Lakers' Director of Basketball Affairs since 2020, after spending the previous two seasons as the organization's Senior Basketball Advisor. Rambis plays a key role in assembling each roster, including the NBA Championship-winning team in 2019-20. He previously spent 16 years in various coaching and front office roles within the organization.

Following a decorated playing career, during which he won four NBA Championships with the Lakers, Rambis initially entered the coaching ranks as an assistant on Del Harris' staff for four-plus seasons (1994-1999). Twelve games into the 1998-99 season, Rambis took over as the Lakers' interim head coach, compiling a 24-13 record and leading the team to the Western Conference Semifinals. He worked in the team's front office – first as an advisor and then as assistant general manager – in the 2000 and 2001 seasons, both of which culminated in NBA Championships for the Lakers. Rambis returned to the sidelines and joined head coach Phil Jackson's staff for seven seasons (2001-04, 2005-09) and for half of the 2004-05 season under interim head coach Frank Hamblen. JJ REDICK

JJ Redick enters his second season as head coach of the Los Angeles Lakers. The 41-year-old was hired June 20, 2024, becoming the 29th head coach in franchise history and the 25th of the Los Angeles era.

In Redick's first season at the helm, the Lakers finished with a 50-32 record, earning the third seed in the Western Conference and a berth in the 2025 NBA Playoffs. The campaign marked Los Angeles' first 50-win season since 2019-20. Redick became just the third Lakers head coach in history to win 50 games in his first full season, joining Phil Jackson (1999-00) and Pat Riley (1981-82).

Prior to beginning his coaching career, Redick enjoyed an impressive 15-year NBA playing career from 2006–21. Known for his shooting prowess, Redick was a career 41.5-percent shooter from long distance and his 1,950 made 3-pointers stand 22nd all-time in NBA history. In his 15 NBA seasons, Redick was part of 14 teams that advanced to the playoffs.

Shortly after his retirement on Sept. 21, 2021, Redick joined ESPN as a game analyst and was promoted to the network's lead broadcast team by the end of the 2023-24 season. In June of 2024, Redick called the NBA Finals alongside colleagues Mike Breen and Doris Burke. Redick is a co-founder of ThreeFourTwo Productions where he co-hosted two popular podcasts: Mind the Game alongside Lakers star LeBron James and The Old Man and the Three. His success in broadcasting and media further showcased his basketball acumen, paving the way for his transition to coaching with the Lakers in 2024.

Selected 11th overall in the 2006 NBA Draft by the Orlando Magic, Redick starred at Duke University from 2002-06. A two-time consensus first-team All-American, he was named the 2006 Naismith Men's College Player of the Year and remains the program's all-time leading scorer. Duke retired his No. 4 jersey on Feb. 4, 2007, and he was inducted into the Duke Athletics Hall of Fame in 2024. Prior to his collegiate career, Redick was a McDonald's All-American at Cave Spring High School in Roanoke, Va.

BILL BERTKA

Bill Bertka returns for his 57th year of service in the NBA and his 51st overall season with the Lakers. Bertka has been with the organization through 11 NBA Championships and 20 NBA Finals appearances. Most recently, Bertka was honored as the 2019 recipient of the Tex Winter Lifetime Achievement Award from the National Basketball Coaches Association, an honor recognizing extraordinary contributions to the sport throughout a career by building a body of work that has had a positive and powerful impact on the NBA coaching profession.

Serving as an assistant coach under nine Lakers head coaches dating back to 1981, Bertka brings a wealth of experience to the position, including coaching Laker big men Wilt Chamberlain, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Vlade Divac, Shaquille O'Neal and Andrew Bynum. His talent as a scout and experience in player personnel matters make him an excellent resource for the team's basketball operations staff.

Bertka became the first full-time scout in league history when the Lakers hired him in 1968. When Head Coach Bill Sharman took over the team in 1971-72, Bertka began working with players while also adding advance scouting duties. That team would later go on a 33-game winning streak – a still-standing professional sports record – en route to an NBA title, giving Bertka his first ring. In 1974, he left the Lakers to become the first general manager of the New Orleans Jazz and also had an initial ownership stake in the franchise through his company, Invest West Sports.

In 1981, Pat Riley became head coach of the Lakers and brought Bertka back as his first assistant. Together, the duo constructed what came to be known as the Lakers "Showtime" era, guiding the team to seven NBA Finals appearances in nine seasons and winning four NBA titles (1982, 1985, 1987, 1988). Bertka remained as an assistant coach with the Lakers for two decades, later winning back-to-back championships under Head Coach Phil Jackson (2000, 2001). Following his final season on the Lakers bench in 2001, Bertka transitioned to a primary role as a scout, a position in which he served through the 2011-12 season while winning three more NBA titles. He continues to advise the Lakers as a basketball consultant in the scouting department.

Bertka has twice served as interim coach of the Lakers, coaching two games during the 1993-94 season and one game while replacing Del Harris in 1998-99. He holds a 2-1 career record as an interim head coach, and his 1999 coaching appearance made him the oldest person to ever coach an NBA game at the age of 71.

The Santa Barbara native is also well known for founding Bertka Views, one of the most successful college scouting services in the country, which he and his wife, Solveig, operated from 1961-1995. Throughout that time period, many of the nation's premier college basketball programs utilized Bertka Views as their sole scouting service. Adding another feather to his cap during the summer of 1992, Bertka served as a scout for the United States' Olympic basketball team at the European Qualifying Tournament in Zaragoza, Spain. Additionally, Bertka hosted Sports With Bertka, his own radio show in Santa Barbara that won three Golden Mike Awards in the 1970's.

In 1989, Bertka enjoyed the dual distinction of being inducted into each of his hometowns' respective Hall of Fames; In May of that year he was inducted into the Santa Barbara Sports Hall of Fame and just five months later in October, he was inducted into the Summit County (Ohio) Sports Hall of Fame, where he grew up as a child. In January of 2004, Bertka was inducted into the Kent State University Sports Hall of Fame and most recently, was an inaugural inductee into the Santa Barbara Basketball Court of Champions in June 2014.

Bill and Solveig have two married daughters, Britt, who is married to veteran NBA assistant coach Jim Eyen, and Kris, married to Yankees scout Bill Pintard, and make their home on a 50-acre avocado ranch in Santa Barbara. They have four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

THE PATH TO VICTORY: The Lakers took home the inaugural NBA Cup in 2023, blazing through their competition with a perfect 7-0 record in tournament play. Los Angeles competed in Western Group A as part of the NBA's first-ever In-Season Tournament, a group that consists of the Memphis Grizzlies, Phoenix Suns, Utah Jazz and Portland Trail Blazers. Each team played four designated Group Play games – one game against each opponent in its group, with two games at home and two on the road.

Game 1: The Lakers squared off against the Phoenix Suns on Friday, Nov. 10, at Footprint Center for Los Angeles' first game of the In-Season Tournament Group Play, and the Purple and Gold came out victorious, 122-119. LeBron James led the way with a team-high 32 points (11-17 FG, 3-4 3FG, 7-11 FT) to go with 11 rebounds, six assists, one steal and one block in 36 minutes, while Anthony Davis also recorded a double-double, his sixth of the season, with 18 points (5-14 FG, 8-8 FT), 11 rebounds, four assists and one block in 36 minutes. Cam Reddish, starting in place of Austin Reaves, hit five triples and dropped 17 points to give LA the spark they needed and snap their three-game losing streak.

Game 2: The Lakers improved to 2-0 in the In-Season Tournament Group Play stage following a 134-107 victory over the Memphis Grizzlies at Crypto.com Arena on Tuesday, Nov. 14. Los Angeles had their highest-scoring game of the season as seven players scored in double figures. D'Angelo Russell led the way for the Lakers, scoring 24 points (8-12 FG, 6-8 3FG, 2-3 FT) in 27 minutes. Rui Hachimura added 23 points (8-10 FG, 3-3 3FG, 4-4 FT), playing 24 minutes after coming off the bench. Austin Reaves recorded a double-double scoring 16 points (5-9 FG, 4-4 3FG, 2-3 FT) to go along with 12 rebounds. Anthony Davis also recorded a double-double, his eighth of the season, as he dropped 19 points (7-11 FG, 5-6 FT) and grabbed 11 boards. LeBron James made his return after missing a game due to a left calf contusion and scored 16 points (6-11 FG, 3-6 3FG), grabbed nine rebounds and dished out six assists in 23 minutes. Santi Aldama paced the Grizzlies with 24 points (9-15 FG, 3-8 3FG), but it was not enough to keep up with the sharp-shooting Lakers, whose 22 3-pointers tied the franchise record (Feb. 7, 2019 at Boston).

Game 3: In the Lakers' third game of In-Season Tournament Group Play, Los Angeles took down the Trail Blazers, 107-95, in Portland to improve to a perfect 3-0 record. The Purple and Gold took the lead from the jump and never trailed in the game in large part due to LeBron James' monstrous performance, recording 35 points (13-22 FG, 5-9 3FG, 4-6 FT), five rebounds, nine assists and two steals in 35 minutes. Anthony Davis (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Christian Wood (10 points, 10 rebounds) complimented James' performance with double-doubles, and the Lakers remained undefeated in Group Play. Jerami Grant paced the Blazers with 24 points (8-20 FG, 4-9 3FG, 4-4 FT), four rebounds, three assists and one steal in 40 minutes of play.

Game 4: The Lakers had their biggest win of the season and clinched a spot in the In-Season Tournament Quarterfinals with a perfect 4-0 record thanks to a 131-99 victory over the Utah Jazz. Anthony Davis led the way for L.A., recording his 11th double-double of the season with 26 points (11-14 FG, 4-4 FT) and 16 rebounds. Davis tallied his double-double in the first half (17 PTS, 10 REB), marking the 21st time in his career he has accomplished the feat in the first half. Six other Lakers scored in double figures including D'Angelo Russell (20 PTS), LeBron James (17 PTS), and Austin Reaves (19 PTS). Omer Yurtseven led the way for Utah as he had 18 points (8-11 FG) off the bench. The Purple and Gold improved to 9-6 on the season and hosted the Dallas Mavericks on the second night of a back-to-back.

Game 5 (Quarterfinals): The Lakers took down the Phoenix Suns, 106-103, to advance to the In-Season Tournament Semifinals in Las Vegas. LA led by as many 15 points in the first half, but Phoenix came storming back; there were 14 lead changes in game with it all coming down to the final seconds, but the Purple and Gold squeaked out the victory to remain undefeated in the IST with a perfect 5-0 record. LeBron James recorded a double-double, his sixth of the season, with 31 points (12-25 FG, 2-4 3FG, 5-6 FT) to go along with 11 assists. Anthony Davis tallied his 18th double-double with 27 points (10-26 FG, 7-8 FT) and 15 boards. Austin Reaves added 20 points (7-16 FG, 3-8 3FG), including a clutch 3-pointer with 15.3 seconds remaining to put the Lakers up by four. Kevin Durant led the Suns with 31 points (12-17 FG, 4-7 3FG), but it was not enough for Phoenix as they were knocked out of the IST.

Game 6 (Semifinals): In a highly anticipated semifinals matchup of the NBA's first-ever In-Season Tournament in Las Vegas, the Lakers took down the New Orleans Pelicans, 133-89. The 44-point differential is the largest win of the season for the Purple and Gold and led by none other than LeBron James, who posted 30 points (9-12 FG, 4-4 3FG, 8-8 FT) to go with five rebounds and eight assists in 23 minutes. Anthony Davis recorded his 19th double-double of the season with 16 points and 15 rebounds and was one of six Lakers players who scored in double figures, including Taurean Prince who recorded 15 points with five 3-pointers made on eight attempts. LA outscored New Orleans 43-17 in the third quarter, the most scored and least allowed in the third frame all season by the Lakers, and the Lakers advanced to the In-Season Tournament Championship game.

Game 7 (Finals): The Lakers became the first-ever NBA In-Season Tournament Champions as they took down the Indiana Pacers, 123-109, on Saturday, Dec. 9, at T-Mobile Arena in Las Vegas. Anthony Davis led the way for the Purple and Gold with a dominant double-double performance of 41 points (16-24 FG, 9-13 FT) and 20 rebounds in 41 minutes. LeBron James, voted after the game as the In-Season Tournament's Most Valuable Player, put up 24 points (10-21 FG, 4-5 FT), grabbed 11 boards and added four assists and two steals in 35 minutes as he and Davis were both named to the NBA's All-Tournament Team after the game. Austin Reaves led the bench unit with a season-high 28 points (9-15 FG, 10-12 FT), and the Lakers took home the In-Season Tournament trophy with a perfect 7-0 record in tournament play. Stats recorded in this game did not count towards regular season or postseason stats.

IN THE COMMUNITY

343 NBA Cares
344 Community Initiatives

NBA CARES

NBA Cares is the league's global social responsibility program that builds on the NBA's mission of addressing important social issues. NBA Cares programs and participants have provided more than 7.4 million hours of hands-on service and created more than 2,320 places where kids and families can live, learn or play in communities around the world. Internationally, NBA Cares has created more than 320 places where kids and families can live, learn or play in 40 countries and territories. NBA Cares works with internationally recognized youth-serving programs that support education, youth and family development, and health-related causes, including Thurgood Marshall College Fund, Special Olympics, YMCA of the USA, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, UNICEF, the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Share Our Strength and GLSEN.

For more information about the NBA's latest community outreach efforts, please visit www.cares.nba.com.

LAKERS YOUTH FOUNDATION

The Los Angeles Lakers Youth Foundation is a registered 501(c)3 organization and the official team charity of the Los Angeles Lakers. The Foundation's mission is to help underserved youth develop their potential by providing positive experiences and resources in education, health and wellness, and sports. The Foundation also awards grants to other charities that support youth through direct services and programs in these areas.

BUSS FAMILY & THE LAKERS

During his lifetime, as a result of his considerable charitable efforts, Dr. Jerry Buss was honored by a wide range of organizations that included City of Hope, NAACP, the B'Nai B'rith, United Negro College Fund, United Indian Development Association, National Organization of Women, Boys and Girls Clubs of America, Muscular Dystrophy Association, the Los Angeles Human Relations Commission, Heart of Los Angeles Youth and Special Olympics of Southern California. Following in their father's footsteps, the Buss family's philanthropic and community support is as diverse as the community in which they live and work.

The Lakers and the Lakers Youth Foundation annually donate hundreds of thousands of dollars, tickets, merchandise, and autographed items to support countless neighborhood schools, charities, and youth groups as well as non-profit organizations that attend to the needs of communities in Southern California.

LAKERS YOUTH FOUNDATION IN-ARENA AUCTION

Lakers' fans have the opportunity to support the Lakers Youth Foundation and take home Lakers memorabilia at every home game. During each home game, the Lakers Youth Foundation will host a live auction at halftime. Items will be on display at Crypto.com Arena on the main concourse outside of Guest Services. Items range from current players including LeBron, Luka and Reaves to Lakers Legends like Kareem and Magic. Proceeds raised at the live auction directly go towards the grants that the Lakers Youth Foundation awards each season, including the Quarterly Grant and YOU Grant.

COMPLIMENTARY GROUP TICKETS

Each year, the Lakers and the Lakers Youth Foundation donate several thousand tickets to Southern California non-profit organizations so that their members may enjoy a game together. Often, the complimentary group ticket is the non-profit member's first opportunity to see a Lakers game. Ticket requests can be made online at Lakers.com/community/giving.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

The Lakers and Lakers Youth Foundation are dedicated to helping their fans live a healthy lifestyle and providing youth access to quality programming and safe places to learn and play.

The Lakers Youth Foundation is proud to offer local organizations the opportunity to host a free basketball clinic and fitness clinics for children in their neighborhood. The clinics are designed to promote youth basketball, be interactive, make physical fitness fun, and teach kids how to stay active and healthy.

Every season, the Lakers Youth Foundation also provides several basketball court refurbishments in the Los Angeles community. The new courts provide a safe place for youth to pursue healthy exercise and sports. The Foundation has refurbished 40+ basketball courts throughout Los Angeles and Hawaii. These projects allow us to build professional quality basketball courts for the youth in our community. Each court refurbishment includes state of the art upgrades to the court, baskets, and overall appearance. The goal is to replicate the Lakers practice court so the youth can play the Lakers way.

Junior Lakers is the Lakers' signature youth basketball program focused on developing fundamental skills, teamwork, sportsmanship and positive community involvement for Los Angeles youth. Powered by UCLA Health, the Junior Lakers program has an impact to reach over 130,000 L.A. youth basketball players. The Lakers provide resources and support to participating organizations to enhance their youth basketball curriculums. The Lakers also teach participating groups to encourage youth to learn the Lakers way-to-play which embodies hard work, health, teamwork, dedication and integrity. Junior Lakers has year-round programming, with multiple events including: The Junior Lakers Tournament, Junior Lakers Night, basketball clinics, dance clinics, coaches training, a new season launch event and much more.

The Junior Laker Girls program brings together over 2,500 youth across all Southern California Boys & Girls Clubs. The Laker Girls visit each club and teach kids ages 6-16 how to dance the Laker Girls way. Dancers from each club learn about teamwork, sportsmanship and what is takes to be a Laker Girl before learning a Laker Girls routine. Following the clinics, dancers have the opportunity to perform the dance alongside the Laker Girls at halftime of a Lakers game!

GRANTING WISHES

In collaboration with wish-granting organizations, the Los Angeles Lakers regularly provide game tickets and arrange player meetings for children and adults facing life-threatening medical conditions. Over the past 20 years, the Lakers have granted over 400 special wishes for children and adults from all over the United States, Canada and as far away as the Netherlands.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

CAMP LAKERS

Camp Lakers, presented by UCLA Health, is committed to providing young players with the ultimate Lakers experience. Camp Lakers features advanced and experienced basketball instructors, who teach with support and resources from the Positive Coaching Alliance and are overseen by members of the Lakers' staff. Camp emphasizes the fundamentals of offensive and defensive basketball taught the Lakers Way. A combination of drill stations, games, league play, playoffs and awarded skill contests highlight an organized and structured week of fun for campers. Each day special Lakers guests and staff visit Camp to meet and speak with the campers.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

The Lakers and Pechanga Resort Casino created the "Hoops for Troops" program in 2015 to honor those who serve and sacrifice for our country. Hoops for Troops basketball clinics offer the chance for U.S. Armed Forces service members around Southern California to receive tips from Lakers legends on shooting, passing and ballhandling skills, as well as some friendly competition. After the clinic, participants and their families stay and enjoy the Lakers game.

EDUCATION

The Lakers support several initiatives emphasizing the importance of education.

The Lakers Literacy League, supported by Libby, is a free program for teachers intended to foster the joy of literacy in youth grades K-5 through engaging Lakers-themed challenges and creative projects. Teachers register their classrooms to receive a monthly newsletter with access to three main activities per month. Eligible members of the League then have the opportunity to win prizes for their entire class. To learn more or join the Lakers Literacy League, visit Lakers.com/community/literacy-league.

Over the years, the Lakers and NBA Cares have also worked together to renovate learning spaces and STEM labs throughout Los Angeles in an effort to provide safe, stimulating, and comfortable environments for youth members to learn, study, and build meaningful relationships.

A SEASON OF GIVING

The annual Lakers "Season of Giving," presented by East West Bank, consists of several events centered around the holidays intended to bring joy and cheer to local underserved communities. The 2024 "Season of Giving," presented by East West Bank, tipped off in November with a Thanksgiving Feast at the UCLA Health Training Center, where youth guests gathered to enjoy a festive celebration. Soon after, the Lakers family continued tradition at The Salvation Army LA Red Shield Community Center with the annual Turkey Giveaway. The season wrapped up with a joyful Holiday Party, spreading Lakers holiday cheer and creating lasting memories for families. Current and former Lakers players join the events to interact with the community and provide a memorable holiday experience for all.

CHICK HEARN NIGHT

Chick Hearn Night has been celebrated at the Lakers home game closest to Chick's birthday every season since his passing in 2002. On Chick Hearn Night, the annual Chick Hearn Memorial Scholarship is presented to help two aspiring sports journalists pursue their dreams.

WILDFIRE RELIEF EFFORTS

Throughout the past year, the Los Angeles Lakers and the Lakers Youth Foundation have proudly joined forces with fellow Los Angeles sports teams, community partners and fans to support those impacted by the devastating Southern California wildfires. Together with eleven other franchises, the Lakers helped pledge more than $8 million in relief funding, directed resources to youth sports programs in affected areas. Locally, the team hosted multiple donation drives at Crypto.com Arena and the UCLA Health Training Center, with all contributions benefiting the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank. The Lakers also celebrated and uplifted the community by inviting schools and families impacted by the fires to home games, honoring first responders with special experiences, and hosting a youth clinic led by Head Coach JJ Redick and Lakers staff.

THE ADVANCEMENT OF SOCIAL ISSUES

Through a combination of civic engagement, voter education, digital inclusion initiatives, and internal programs, the Lakers are committed to being an anti-racist organization. Building Bridges with Basketball is a program that serves as an opportunity for members of the Los Angeles Police Department and at-risk youth from local community organizations to engage in conversations around dynamic topics. Using the sport as a bridge for these discussions, the ultimate intention is to break down barriers and build positive, lasting connections that last beyond each session and permeate the community.

The Black Action Network, an employee resource group, works to build inclusiveness and provide cultural opportunities for staff. For the last several summers, the Lakers have hosted four interns from Historically Black Colleges and Universities through the NBA's HBCU Fellowship program. These programs, among many others, are part of the Lakers' dedication to making profound anti-racist changes in the Los Angeles community.

The Lakers celebrate the power of mentorship through several engagement opportunities. Girl Dad Night encourages fathers to mentor and help pave the way for their daughters in sports and beyond. The Lakers also host a Mentor Night and mentor-themed basketball clinics to provide opportunities for mentors and mentees to build relationships.

LAKERS "TEAM UP"

The Lakers Team Up program echoes the team's commitment to the community and gives Lakers staff the opportunity to get out of the office and give back to the community in a hands-on way. Throughout the year, Lakers staff participate in volunteer events that support the core pillars of Lakers Community Relations. These events are designed to make a positive impact in the community and encourage LA residents of all ages to volunteer and engage in community service projects.

The South Bay Lakers enter their 18th campaign in the NBA G League in 2025-26 as they look to remain one of the most successful franchises in league history.

Throughout the franchise's history, the South Bay Lakers have been at the forefront of the NBA's minor league movement. The team has established itself as a top producer of NBA-ready talent, totaling 56 NBA Call-Ups and developing 29 Lakers assignment players since the team's inaugural season in 2006-07.

Zach Guthrie enters his second season as the head coach of the South Bay Lakers. The San Antonio native was hired ahead of the 2024-25 season. His 18 years of experience began in 2007 when he was hired as a intern for the Austin Toros of the NBA G League while attending the University of Texas at Austin working towards his bachelor's degree in business. Before joining the Lakers, Guthrie previously served three seasons as an assistant coach with the Washington Wizards. Prior to his stint with Washington, he served as an assistant coach with the Dallas Mavericks in 2020-21 and spent five seasons with the Utah Jazz, the last four as an assistant coach. Guthrie interned with the Toros for three seasons before spending two years with the San Antonio Spurs, ascending to the role of assistant video coordinator in 2011-12. He the went on to serve as manager of advanced scouting for the Orlando Magic from 2012-15.

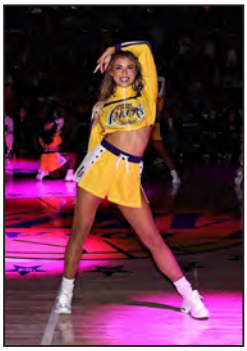
PRIMARY LOGO

SECONDARY LOGO

The 2024-25 season for South Bay was highlighted by four NBA Call-Ups: Kylor Kelley (Dallas Mavericks, New Orleans Pelicans), Jordan Goodwin (Los Angeles Lakers) and Cole Swider (Toronto Raptors). The Lakers finished the month of March with a 10-3 record, the team's winningest March record since the 2013-14 season.

Los Angeles Lakers guard Bronny James appeared in 18 Tip-Off Tournament and regular season games for South Bay, averaging 18.6 points, 4.5 rebounds, 4.8 assists and 1.6 steals in 31.4 minutes. Two-way players for the 2024-25 season included Trey Jemison III, Christian Koloko, Quincy Olivari and Armel Traoré. Jordan Goodwin signed a two-way contract with Los Angeles Feb. 7 before signing with the Lakers March 27.

South Bay will look to build upon last season with Head Coach Zach Guthrie accompanied by returning coaches Perry Huang, Alex Cerda and Mo Charlo. Austin Pope joins the Lakers as head video coordinator after serving the 2024-25 season as a graduate assistant for the University of Kentucky. Brandon Pentheny enters his first season as strength & conditioning coach after serving in the same role for the Delaware Blue Coats. Returning two-way center Christian Koloko will continue to implement the principles of Lakers basketball into the team culture. New two-way guards Chris Mañon and Nick Smith Jr. will look to make their mark. South Bay's season tips off Nov. 8 with a home opener at UCLA Health Training Center versus the Valley Suns in El Segundo, Calif.



As the first NBA team to ever dance on the hardwood, the Laker Girls are back for their 47th season.

It was the great Dr. Jerry Buss who knew a court had the power to be transformed into a stage. He was inspired by the collegiate look and spirit that existed at USC and UCLA in the late 1970s. So, he brought his vision to life by uniting former song leaders from both universities to form the first-ever Laker Girls squad in 1979 — the rest was history.

The most glamorous dance group in the NBA quickly became stars across the country — and then the world. Their style, charisma and moves inspired trends in the music industry as well as the rest of the NBA to follow their lead and form dance teams of their own.

The Laker Girls have evolved into a team comprised of equal parts glamour and fierceness. As iconic as they will always be, each year is original — from all angles.

With the position considered a part-time job, each member of the Laker Girls is also involved in academic pursuits, theatrical and dance careers or non-entertainment careers. But every year, each member of the team arrives with a fierce determination and unfaltering dedication to transform the floor into a stage and reinforce what it means to be a part of the Lakers. The 2025-26 squad is here and ready to bring the energy.

Beyond the dance floor, the Laker Girls have become ambassadors for the organization and NBA worldwide. While active in the local community with multiple appearances throughout the season at many non-profit and charitable functions, the Laker Girls have also been chosen to represent the NBA globally on the continents of Asia, Europe and Australia. And the squad supports and visits our military troops in places abroad including Italy, Bosnia, Korea, Japan, Israel and Sarajevo.

Dr. Jerry Buss brought 10 rings and the Laker Girls to Los Angeles. It's been over four decades and both teams are still integral parts of the city to this day.

For over a quarter century, Crypto.com Arena has garnered an unrivaled reputation for excellence having established itself as one of the world's busiest and most successful venues in the world.

Since opening on October 17, 1999, with Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, more than 84 million guests have come to the AEG-owned and operated venue to attend a schedule of prestigious concerts, sporting events, award shows, family shows and other major attractions unmatched by any arena.

The House of Champions

Crypto.com Arena continues to distinguish itself as the host of major, high-profile events of national and international distinction including the 2004, 2011 & 2018 NBA All-Star Weekends, the 2002 & 2017 NHL All-Star Games and 2010 NHL Draft, 2002 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, the 2000 Democratic National Convention, 2009 ISU World Figure Skating Championships, 22 GRAMMY Award shows, 11 X Games competitions, 4 WTA Tour Championships, 12 Pac 12 Men's Basketball Championship tournaments and 2013, 2015, 2018 & 2024 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship West Regional.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, for the first-time in the arena's 22-year history, it was able to serve as an official LA County Vote Center on October 24 - November 3, 2020.

Brimming with Innovation

Crypto.com Arena has invested hundreds of millions of dollars to ensure that the venue remains state-of-the-art. In 2024, the arena completed its nine-figure multi-million-dollar renovation project with new amenities and offerings for every guest from premium offerings including redesigned San Manuel and Lexus Clubs and L.A.'s first Tunnel Suites to the all-new City View Terrace located on the upper concourse, which boasts stunning views of L.A. LIVE and the Downtown Los Angeles skyline, as well as serves as the home of celebrity chef David Chang's new fuku spicy chicken concept.

Guests who attend events are treated to the finest entertainment experiences imaginable. The arena has free public Wi-Fi, over 840 Toshiba flat panel televisions and (as part of a specially designed $1.5 million facility-wide sound system) 675 separate speakers outside of the seating area, so fans never miss any of the sights or sounds of a Crypto.com Arena event. Also featured is a $2 million specialty lighting package and other state-of-the-art amenities. In 2024, Crypto.com Arena unveiled a new six-display, 5,500 square-foot and 41.7-million-pixel center-hung scoreboard specially designed for the arena, which brings fans even closer to the action.

Along Crypto.com Arena's five concourses are 23 refreshment stands offering a variety of dining choices including Dirt Dog, Doritos After Dark, Fresh Brothers Pizza, Golden Road Brew House, Ludobab, Ludo Bird, Trois Familia Salt & Char, Tap Haus, The Spirited Mule, Wetzel's Pretzels and more.

LIVE. Finally, the arena provides 55 public restrooms including three family restrooms, five Mamava Lactation Pods and Sensory Pods.

Perhaps the greatest emphasis throughout Crypto.com Arena's development has been the recruitment and training of its guest services and security staff. The Crypto.com Arena experience is second-to-none from the entertainment environment to the staff's commitment to making every guest's visit a memorable one. Never has an arena had the amenities, features and commitment to quality service that Crypto.com Arena offers to guests each time the doors open for an event. Crypto.com Arena continues to set new standards for the arena industry.

Philanthropy

Crypto.com Arena's charitable activities are a part of AEG 1Community and its AEG Community Foundation. AEG 1Community seeks to reach beyond the traditional boundaries of business to support the communities where the organization operates. AEG believes that corporate philanthropy and community engagement play a critical role in helping communities thrive and Crypto.com Arena strives to be civic leaders by working to improve the economic and social well-being of local communities where the company operates.

The AEG Community Foundation was established to build on AEG's unwavering commitment to serving children and families through grantmaking. The mission of the Foundation is to support children and families in need through grantmaking in the areas of K-12 education, the arts and health and wellness. We at AEG believe that corporate philanthropy and community engagement play a critical role in helping communities thrive.

Crypto.com Arena and L.A. LIVE serve as the hub for community engagement and support employee volunteerism activities such as a company-wide Day of Service when, through a partnership with City Year, employees volunteer to refurbish local public schools by providing supplies, painting, cleaning and gardening services.

Bustling Dining and Live Entertainment Campus

Located directly across the street from Crypto.com Arena is L.A. LIVE, a one-of-a-kind sports and entertainment district in downtown Los Angeles. The four million square foot destination features Peacock Theater, The GRAMMY Museum, and The Novo, giving L.A. LIVE "more music per square foot" than any other location in the world.

The district offers a rich mix of local, regional and national restaurants including Yard House, Katsuya, Emmys Squared Pizza, Fixins Soul Kitchen, Fleming's Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar, Tom's Watch Bar, Smashburger, Starbucks, Savoca, Sendero, and Lazy Dog Restaurant and Bar.
